DIGITS LLC AND AVALON MERGE SERVICE OFFERINGS AND COMPLETE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP

Syracuse, NY. — November 18, 2010. Avalon and DIGITS LLC announced today the completion of a Strategic Partnership, which will effect the merger of their high-end technology service offerings across New York State. Avalon has unmatched capacity for large and complex litigation productions and E-Discovery processing, which will complement the wide-ranging computer forensics, corporate investigations and network advisory services offered by DIGITS LLC. This partnership will combine Avalon's statewide capacity for large and complex litigation productions with DIGITS' unparalleled experience in computer forensics and complex corporate computer investigations gained from over 115 years of combined federal and state law enforcement careers. The partnership will allow both companies to enhance and support the services offered to their clients.

Avalon Legal Technology's President, J.P. Midgley, is excited about this new partnership stating, "The combined professionalism, court-recognized expertise, and qualifications of DIGITS LLC will bring additional value to our clients in the corporate and legal industries. Our alliance with DIGITS LLC will provide an additional enhancement to safeguard the data used to create these reports. Michael McCartney, DIGITS LLC President & CEO, said, "We look forward to being able to extend our court recognized expert personnel and computer forensic services to Avalon and the additional markets they serve. Combining the expertise of our two firms greatly enhances the service offerings and value to our collective clients and customers.
