

Avalon Launches New Phoenix Office

BUFFALO, NY – August 9, 2021 – Avalon, a national provider of digital forensics, eDiscovery, cybersecurity, business process outsourcing services, and traditional litigation support services to law firms and corporations, has opened a new office in Phoenix, Arizona. This additional location strengthens Avalon’s national presence and its commitment to assisting the legal and business communities.

"We are jumping in to serve the communities in markets essentially abandoned by the largest players in the industry," says Chris Haag, chief sales officer of Avalon. "We possess the flexibility and nimbleness of a small, but growing firm, accompanied by all the same tools and expertise as the big competitors."

Over the last few years, Avalon has experienced rapid growth, opening offices in Grand Rapids, Michigan; Detroit, Michigan; and Omaha, Nebraska. "Avalon prides itself on delivering best-in-class customer service and offers a very high level of expertise drawn from decades of experience in the industry," says JP Midgley, CEO of Avalon. "Our ability to grow quickly is due primarily to our amazing team members and the extraordinary clients who continue to lean on us to help them solve their evolving challenges every day."
